

A Fact About Kelowna

On Thursday Kelowna ratepayers will vote on four bylaws. All four should be supported.

Four Contest Three Council Seats As Jones Fails to Qualify

Lt.-Col. J. H. Horn and "Tiny" Walrod to Enter Civic Election Campaign as Aldermen Miller and Herbert Decide to Seek Re-election—Election Day on December 13—Alderman O. L. Jones Fails to Qualify Because He Sold Old Property—Has Not Had New Land for Required Six-Month Period

IT IS ANNOUNCED that O. L. Jones, well-known local businessman and a member of the City Council for the past sixteen years, is unable to qualify for aldermanic honors in the 1945 campaign due to a technicality. It was understood late Wednesday afternoon that Alderman Sam Miller and Alderman G. D. Herbert will seek re-election at the polls on December 13, while two new candidates, Lt.-Col. J. H. Horn and H. Paul "Tiny" Walrod, will enter the civic aldermanic contest. Mayor J. Pettigrew is the lone mayoralty candidate. Nomination day is on Monday, December 10.

Alderman Miller has been a member of the City Council for the past three years, while Lt.-Col. J. H. Horn is no newcomer to civic politics. He was a former member of the Council, and has now retired from military service.

Mr. Horn while a member of the Council was an excellent alderman and his supporters now hope that he will resume the excellent civic services he was rendering when they were interrupted by military duties. Mr. Herbert has been a member of the City Council for the past year and is seeking re-election. Mr. Walrod was proposed by Geo. Sutherland, local businessman, and his second was Don Whitman, president of the Kelowna Board of Trade.

Surprise Move.

The announcement that Mr. Jones would not be seeking re-election, came something of a surprise to most people. Mr. Jones has been a member of the City Council for the past sixteen years, four of which he served as Mayor, and has rendered valuable service to the city.

However, due to a technicality, he finds himself unable to qualify as an alderman for the next year. He recently sold his Glenn Avenue home and purchased property on the Harvey Avenue, where he will build.

The qualifications for an alderman require that he be the registered owner of property for a period of at least six months. Mr. Jones will not be the registered owner of the

Resolutions Of Rod And Gun Call For Many Changes In Set-up Of Organization In B.C. Interior

Club Donates $1,000 to Living Memorial Fund—Favor Formation of Central Interior Fish and Game Association—Would Increase Non-Resident Anglers' Fee and Lower Fish Limit in Surrounding Lakes—Want Anglers to Register Fishing Licence Numbers at Tourist Camps

COMPLETE re-organization of the Vernon and Kelowna Rod and Gun Clubs; the formation of the Central Interior Fish and Game Association; increasing the non-resident anglers' fee to $10; reduction of the daily fish limit in Beaver, Oyama and Doreen Lakes, together with the recommendation that all anglers be required to register their fishing licence number when they are guests at a tourist camp, were the chief resolutions adopted last week at the annual meeting of the Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club held in the Women's Institute Hall.

The meeting, considered the most important held since the local Rod and Gun Club was first organized, and unanimously approved of a $1,000 donation to the War Memorial campaign. The financial statement showed the association has $391.57 in the bank, while government bonds amount to $400. In order not to use membership money as a donation toward the Memorial Fund, it was decided to sell the property donated to the club by the late Dr. B. F. Doyce.

Members of the association unanimously approved the suggestion from the joint executives of the Vernon and Kelowna Clubs that a Central Interior Fish and Game Association be formed. It will include the mainline in the Okanagan Valley south to Penticton. A copy of a letter which will be submitted to the City Council asking the City Fathers to find a suitable building to house the Boy Scout museum collection, was also read to the gathering. A copy of the letter will be forwarded to all service clubs in the city. Due to unsuitable accommodation, it was decided to postpone this year's annual game dinner.

Recommendations of the Kelowna and District Rod and Gun Club for the protection of the game fish in B.C. are as follows:

Resolved: In our opinion it is essential that the staff of game wardens and fishery inspectors be increased.

EAST DEMANDS MORE APPLES FROM VALLEY

Battle of Words Raging Over Apple Quotas—W.P.T.B. in Picture

At the moment a battle of words is being waged between B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd. and the Wartime Food Board, centered around the W.P.T.B.'s contention that a large proportion of the Okanagan apple crop should be sent to Eastern markets.

The W.P.T.B. contends that, as there was practically a total crop failure in Ontario and Quebec, a considerably increased percentage of the B.C. crop should be sent to the East than has been the case in former years.

On the other hand, B.C. Tree Fruits contends that it is its responsibility to look after its normal market, the western provinces, and that these should be protected as to supplies before the Eastern shipments are increased. While it is true that the proportion of the B.C. crop marketed in the East each year, the fact remains that the principles remain "the bread-and-butter" market.

This year it was necessary to impose a selling quota system in order that all wholesalers and retailers would receive some supplies. The quota was based on a percentage of previous years' purchases of apples, but since that time all markets have been crying for more and more apples, which simply do not exist. B.C. Tree Fruits is endeavoring to give each market a reasonable supply and to treat all markets in the same manner.

Eastern outlets are bringing strong pressure to bear upon the W.P.T.B. for more apples, as they feel that the quota system is a battle of words is raging merrily.

Car shipments last week totalled 240, including three cars of onions moved from destination storage. Commencing on Monday, November 26, the daily shipments of apples for the week were: 13, 40, 24, 19, 23, 113. On Monday and Tuesday of this week 78 and 69 moved.

These figures bring the car shipments for the year to December 4, 8493. On the same date in 1944 the shipments had been 10,498, while in 1943 they were 5,581.

Alderman Sees Slight Chance Of Passing Bylaws Affecting City Tax Rate In Any Degree

Alderman W. B. Hughes-Games, Chairman of City Council's Financial Committee, Points Out That Four Bylaws Require Borrowing of Only $80,000 of Which About $18,000 Will Be Recoverable—Large Increase in City Tax Roll Will Offset Bylaws and There Should Be No Need to Consider Tax Increase

THERE is slight possibility of the passing of the bylaws to be voted upon by the ratepayers on December 13th will affect the tax rate of the city in the slightest degree, Alderman W. B. Hughes-Games, chairman of the finance committee of the City Council told The Courier on Wednesday. He said the bylaws providing for the borrowing of $80,000 by the city will be offset by the large areas of land formerly held by the city and now coming on the tax roll through their sale to private individuals. This land, plus the greatly increased building in the city, represent a very substantial increase in the city's tax roll.

"The ratepayers," Mr. Hughes-Games stated, "are being asked to vote on four bylaws and it is important that they know clearly for what they are voting. Three of the bylaws involve expenditure of $80,000, but of these only two involve borrowing. The total to be borrowed under the two bylaws is $80,000, but it is expected that $17,000 or $18,000 will be recovered by the city."

The first of these bylaws involves borrowing $20,000 to secure the Dickson Ranch on the Vernon Road for an airport site. The City Council has submitted this bylaw at the request of the Kelowna Aviation Council. This body, representing various Kelowna organizations, has assured the Council that after many years of search for a suitable airport site, the Dickson property is the best available, and has been purchased by the Kelowna Aviation Council.

The Aviation Council has made a very full report on the whole matter and has satisfied the City Council that this is a bylaw which should be passed by the ratepayers.

"The other three bylaws," Mr. Hughes-Games stated, "are concerned with the Civic Centre. One is to officially ratify the expression of opinion given by the ratepayers last May, when they voted overwhelming support for the Civic Centre. The second is to authorize the City Council to acquire the site for the Civic Centre. The third is to authorize the City Council to acquire the site for the Civic Centre."

"Welcome Home" Dance Successful As Hundreds Of Veterans Fill Hall

Close to 1,000 ex-servicemen and women, together with representatives of various civic organizations, attended the dance at the Scout Hall and Zenith Hall last Thursday night, which was one of the highlights of the "Welcome Home Week" sponsored by the city and the local Rehabilitation Committee in honor of veterans who took part in bringing victory to our country.

It was the largest service dance ever held in Kelowna, while the evening also marked the first "welcome home" function arranged for servicemen in the Valley. Other cities and towns in the Okanagan are also planning on holding similar parties in honor of Great War II veterans due to the fact the party was so successful here. Both halls were suitably decorated and they remained filled up until the dances stopped at 2:30 a.m.

Impromptu "welcome home" addresses were given by the Worshipful Master James Pettigrew, Don Whitman, President of the Kelowna Board of Trade; R. G. Rutherford, chairman of the Rehabilitation Committee, and G. D. Herbert, chairman of the "Welcome Home" committee. The committee in charge was pleased with the way the whole evening was handled, and it is possible another dance will be arranged for all service men and women the early part of next year.

Tasty lunches were provided by members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, and an indication of their hard work was given when it was revealed after the party that they had cut close to 1,300

Building Permits Show 100 Per Cent Increase During Past 11 Months

Values Up to End of November Total $646,565, an Increase of $300,285 Over Last Year—November Figures Also Show Gain of $27,235 Over 1944—Almost Half of Building Permits Issued This Year Have Been for New Houses—Will Build Frozen Food Lockers Here

CITY building permit values increased more than 100 per cent during the first 11 months of the year compared with the corresponding period in 1944, it was revealed at the City Office this week, when figures showed that construction values soared to a new high record of $646,565.00, an increase of $300,285.00 over last year. At the same time the November permit values totalled $57,130, a jump of $27,235 compared with the same month in 1944. The figures are significant in view of the fact none of the November figures are for excessive amounts.

Out of a total of 338 building permits issued so far this year, almost half of them have been for the construction of new houses. Last month alone, eleven permits for new homes were issued, in addition to a permit to build 20 lockers and mess hall for the Industrial Biting Ltd., which will take care of housing accommodation for packing house employees. Total cost of the cabins will run in the vicinity of $7,000.

To start the month of December off on the right foot, a permit was issued to R. F. Wilson, valued at $8,500, for the construction of Frozen Food Lockers in the city. Work on the new building is expected to get underway within the near future, as soon as materials are available. Kelowna has probably outstripped every other city in the Okanagan, in so far as building is concerned. A steady increase in construction has been noted in the city shortly after the war started, and the latest figures for the 11-month period pass all previous records.

Issue Permits

Permits for the construction of new homes in the city have been issued to the following people: Aaron M. Wiens, $2,000; A. S. W. Hughes-Games, $5,500; O. L. Jones, $6,500; J. A. Mann, $5,000; F. R. Zahara, $4,500; A. Fichter, $3,400; J. MacKey, $1,500; F. Sdrojeski, $4,025; F. A. August, $4,000; E. F. Hovemann, $4,500; H. A. Meyer, $3,350; Industrial Biting Ltd., 20 cabins and mess hall, $7,000.

Permits issued for various other construction jobs: Rawcliffe, chimney, $30; J. N. McEwan, garage, $150; M. N. DeMara, alterations to garage, $350; A. Anderson, install furnace, $200; J. R. Dore, room in attic, $100; G. Saxon, $425; Mrs. Alice Curtis, addition to house, $550; H. L. Glenn, garage, $125; M. Simpson, Ltd., storage shed, $1,200; A. Ruddle, alterations to house, $400; Imperial Oil, $200; Mickey Wynne and Miss G. Angers, garage, $400.

RURAL AREAS MAY GET BUS SERVICE SOON

City Council Approves Second Application for Transport Service

Application from John William Pavle, of Kelowna, to start a rural bus service, has been approved by the City Council. The second bus application that has been approved by the City Council, former naval officer, is prepared to provide a bus service inside the city limits, and this may be started by the first of the year. Both applications were reviewed by the Transit Board in Vancouver this week.

Mr. Pavle has indicated he will provide a 25-passenger bus, and the bus depot will be the central point for all routes. In submitting his plan, Mr. Pavle is prepared to give a three-hour service over the three routes. The fares vary from ten to 25 cents.

Route number one takes in Rutland, Glenora and East Kelowna. Route No. 2 includes the Bankhead district, Glenora store and Glenora, while route No. 3 will provide service to Fish Bay, K.L.O. Bridge, and East Kelowna.

Mr. Pavle will not be allowed to pick up passengers inside the city limits, however.

Housing Figures

An idea of the acute housing situation in Kelowna was given to City Fathers at the Council meeting Monday night when Fred Gore, local building inspector, submitted his report.

Mr. Gore stated 152 permits for the construction of new houses have been taken out so far this year. Of this total, 77 are already completed, and the remaining 75 had 56 will take anywhere from one to three months to finish when and if materials are available.

PREVENTORIUM MAKES GRANT TO MEMORIAL

Gives $2,500 to Fund—$2,000 for Children's Ward in Local Hospital

The Gordon Campbell Preventorium, in winding up its affairs, has decided that $2,500 should be given to the Memorial Fund and $2,000 set aside for the furnishing of a children's ward in the hospital, when the new wing is built. In making the gift to the Memorial fund the directors felt that it was in keeping with the original aim of the body.

A. J. Cameron, president of the Preventorium group, in making the announcement this week, stated: "Some months ago the directors of the Gordon Campbell Preventorium decided that it would be advisable that the institution go into voluntary liquidation with a view to the furnishing of a children's ward in the Kelowna Hospital, when a new wing should be built, since such a use would be in harmony with the original purpose of the Preventorium. It was authoritatively estimated that $2,000.00 would amply provide for this objective and such sum will be invested in bonds and kept available."

At a meeting of the directors, held last week, it was decided that the remaining $2,500.00 should be donated to the Kelowna and District War Memorial Fund. Having in mind the fact that the Preventorium was established with the aim of contributing to the health and general well being of children who might be in need of special care, the directors considered that a substantial contribution to a purpose so worthy and so directly related to the healthy development of the children of the community would be in keeping with the Preventorium's aims. They considered, also, that the use of the funds available for the two purposes mentioned would meet with the approval of those whose generosity in past years made such contributions possible.

"I should like to take this opportunity of thanking all those people of the city and district and elsewhere in the Valley who have assisted and assisted the work of the Preventorium during the years of its history, and to express the hope that the general public will approve of the conclusions at which the directors have arrived as to disposition of its funds."

EGG-THROWING YOUTHS TO FACE JUVENILE JUDGE

Three Stolen Eggs Against Homes in Neighborhood—Other Charges Pending

Several irate citizens complained to the police last week-end, after destructive juveniles stole two dozen eggs from the rear porch of Mrs. I. Parkinson's house, 289 Abbott Street, and threw them against the front portion of houses in the neighborhood. The eggs were stolen late Saturday afternoon, but many residents in the vicinity did not know of the damage until early Sunday morning. In the meantime, the eggs had dried hard and owners experienced considerable difficulty in cleaning the walls, especially on stucco structures.

It is understood the police have rounded up five local juveniles responsible for the act, and they will appear before the juvenile court later in the week. A bottle of liquor was reported found on one of the youngsters. Police are also investigating complaints from motorists who have been damaged by their automobiles both Saturday and Sunday nights, including liquor, flashlights and electric light bulbs.

SOME NAMES OMITTED FROM CASUALTY LIST

Since the publication of names and pictures in last week's Courier of individuals who had paid the Supreme Sacrifice, the Courier has been notified that several names of servicemen were omitted from the list.

This was to be expected, as the only list available of those who had died, was taken from the Courier files, and in many cases, the Courier was not notified of their death. The Courier regrets any inconvenience it may have caused bereaved ones, but it is glad to be able to have a complete record of all those who have died on the battlefield. These names omitted from the special page in last week's Courier include: FIL-Lt. Col. Edward Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Byers; Ernest Walter Snowsall, R.C.N.V.R. son of Henry Snowsall, Glenora; Cpl. A. E. Garner, R.A.S.C.; P/O W. F. "Peter" Marshall; WO2 Natam Schlecter. In addition to the names omitted, the name of Sgt. J. Wyrzykowski was mis-spelled. C.P.O. John Rennie was in the R.C.N., and not in the R.C.N.V.R.

Ple E. S. Popp, who was included as a casualty, was at one time reported missing, but he is now in England awaiting transportation home.

Fund At $60,000 Rolling Steadily At Halfway Mark

Canvassers Report Great Number of Callbacks Making it Impossible to End Drive by Week-end—Preventorium and Elks Head Organizations Making Gifts This Week—Considerable Sum of Money in Hands of Canvassers—Some Areas Not Reporting Until Canvass Is Completed—Little Word From Most Country Areas—War Savings Donations Have Been Disappointing—Committee Remains Confident and Enthusiastic

Wednesday night the directors of the Kelowna Aquatic Association voted $500 and recommended that another $500 be donated next year. The Kelowna Nurses' Association have donated $100.

THE Kelowna and District War Memorial Fund on Wednesday night was well over the $60,000 figure and the prospects were that the next three days would see a considerable jump in the collections. At the present time it is known that a substantial sum of money is in the hands of the canvassers and it is expected that this will be turned in this week-end. At the same time, canvassers generally report a great number of call-backs and this has tended to slow down the canvass considerably. It has become evident that the canvass cannot possibly be finished this week-end and the campaign has been extended to enable the canvassers to make their call-backs and make every possible contact.

While the campaign has not moved forward as quickly as would have been liked, the committee is not in the least discouraged, feeling that when the final figure is recorded the objective, if not quite reached, will be well within sight.

No analysis of the figures is possible, as many canvassers have made no report, waiting until they complete their contacts. This is particularly true in the country districts.

Actually the canvassers report very few complete turn-downs. In some cases, it is true, the gifts are small, but those who are refusing to contribute can be considered almost negligible. Even the humblest of homes are finding that they can spare a little as a token of their gratitude.

One pleasant feature this week was the gift of $100 from a former Kelowna boy, who is now away from this city. He used the coupon in last week's Courier to forward to the fund his gift of $100 and to show his retained interest in his home town.

More organizations are also contributing something from their treasuries. The B.P.O. Elks are donating $1,000, while the Gordon Campbell Preventorium gave $2,500 of its $4,500 of surplus funds. The Ladies of the Royal Purple have forwarded $100, while the Stagettes have sent $25. The Alpha Delta Sorority $50 and the St. Michael and All Angels' Parish Guild $250. The K.G.E. Overseas Smoke Fund found it had $150 in its treasury and has donated this. The Kelowna Aquatic Association was expected Wednesday evening to make a donation.

A. K. Loyd, chairman of the Memorial committee, on our objective, viewed the progress of the campaign in a somewhat realistic but confident vein. Mr. Loyd said: "We are just coming up to the half-way mark in the three weeks campaign, to reach our objective. Actual donations and certified pledges amount to approximately $60,000 at the moment. This is a good response to the very praiseworthy efforts of our canvassers but it is not quite good enough. We have to remember that this is not a campaign which can be renewed indefinitely into the future, but it is a final and decisive test as to whether Kelowna and District is sufficiently interested and enthusiastic to make a supreme effort to commemorate our fighting men and women in a fitting manner. It will be of no avail later on for anyone to say, 'Well, if I had known that it was as important as all that I would have turned to Page 12, Story 3'

Two Children Missing Being Burned To Death As Fire Completely Guts Modern Home In Benvoulin

Second Home That Mr. and Mrs. Pansegrau Have Lost by Fire—Children Left in House While Parents Milk Cows—Smash Front Window to Rescue Two Youngsters—Building Partly Covered by Insurance—Family Staying with Friends

TWO children narrowly missed being burned to death when a fire completely gutted a modern bungalow owned by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pansegrau, Benvoulin, about 6:30 p.m., last Friday. The building and contents, valued in the neighborhood of $4,800, were completely lost. This is the second home that the Benvoulin farmers have lost, as flames swept through another home on the same property on April 15, 1941.

According to reports, Mr. and Mrs. Pansegrau had gone to milk the cows about 6 p.m., leaving the two children, Allen, age 4, and Evelyn, age 5, in the playroom of the home. Shortly after commencing milking, they noticed flames piercing through the kitchen walls. They ran back to the house, but were unable to enter the building due to the smoke and flames. Smashing a front room window, Mr. Pansegrau climbed into the blazing structure and rescued the two children.

The burning building attracted nearby neighbors, and with their assistance, Mr. and Mrs. Pansegrau were able to rescue a small amount of furniture and personal effects from the home. Due to lack of water, however, they were unable to save the building and were obliged to watch their four-year-old bungalow be completely demolished by flames. All that is standing on the property today is the chimney. They were unable to salvage anything from the debris. Value of the building was estimated at around $3,300.

The fire is believed to have started in the corner of the kitchen as

The Fund

The Memorial Fund, due to the great number of call-backs which the canvassers have had to make this week, has hit the doldrums somewhat and it is now apparent that the canvass will not be completed this week-end, as had been hoped by the Committee. The canvass will continue throughout the next week until the volunteer canvassers have made every possible contact.

As might be expected in a canvass of this sort, there are encouraging reports and some that are discouraging. In some cases persons who could well afford to measure their gratitude generously apparently have little gratitude or generosity. On the other hand, some of very humble circumstances have a full heart and show their sincere gratitude with an abundant generosity.

There have been some ups and downs in the campaign, but the Committee, following as accurate an analysis of the figures as can be made, still believe that the goal can be reached. The thermometer has not climbed quite as rapidly as had been hoped, but there are several very excellent reasons for it, the principal one being the fact that in many, many cases the volunteer canvassers have been requested to make return calls. These return calls have become so numerous as to cause a considerable extra burden on the canvassers and to confuse the whole picture.

Another factor which has delayed the reporting of probably a very considerable sum of money is the fact that many canvassers have not been reporting; holding what money they have collected until they are completely through with their canvass. This, too, has made it difficult for the committee and has made the fund total run quite a substantial sum behind the amount actually collected.

One surprising feature of the campaign is that the pledge cards have been used very little. This method makes it possible for a donor to give something now and something later. He can, as a matter of fact, make monthly contributions, should he so desire. On the surface this would seem an ideal way of making a donation, but whether it has not met with public approval or whether the canvassers have not been using it, very few persons have taken advantage of it.

The Committee, too, has been rather disappointed in the number of War Savings Certificates that have been donated. War Savings is something which most of us have collected almost unwittingly and now have lying in a drawer waiting for the seven and a half years to expire until we can cash in on them. They were collected during the war period and represent usually some hidden savings which most of us did not realize we possess. It would seem that they would be an excellent source from which to draw our donations as we did not extend ourselves for their purchase and we would hardly miss them if they went to the Fund. Quite a large number of persons have used War Savings as their gifts to the Fund, but the number might be considerably larger. It is one way by which most of us can increase the size of our donations.

The canvass will continue one more week. During that period a large section of the public will be canvassed. In making their gifts these people should remember that their gift is the measure of their gratitude to those young men who gave so freely of their lives that we might live in security.

For those who gave so freely, let us give.

The Bylaws

On Thursday next the ratepayers of the City of Kelowna are being asked to give their approval to four bylaws and, when they vote for the members of the City Council, they will indicate on their ballots whether or not they are in favor or are opposed to the bylaws.

Actually all these bylaws should be passed by the ratepayers, The Courier believes. It believes this because in its opinion each one advances the interests of the city and if they are not passed now the people of Kelowna will bitterly regret that fact in future years and will probably pay considerable more money for the same things than they will do today.

The four bylaws involve a borrowing by the city of $80,000 and of this amount it is estimated that about $18,000 will be recoverable through the sale of unrequired land on the airport site and through salvage on the Mill Avenue properties.

There is no reason to anticipate any increase in the tax rate as a result of the passing of these bylaws. The large amount of land which has recently gone on to the tax roll through the sale of city-owned property, and the large volume of building now under way in the city will increase the city revenues more than enough to offset the carrying charges of the bylaws.

The airport bylaw is something which has been waited for here for many years. For more than a decade and a half the Kelowna Board of Trade, the City Council and the Kelowna Aviation Council have carried on a continuous and exhaustive search for a suitable airport site. This search has extended over a wide area on both sides of the lake. Many promising locations were carefully examined but were discarded because they were not large enough or would be too expensive to put into shape, or there were some features to which the civil aviation authorities could not give their approval.

For some time it was felt that the Rutland field would have to be used as a last resort, although there were some very undesirable features about it. But, so strong was the feeling that an airstrip was necessary that the Board of Trade secured control of a block of property and made every effort to reach some agreement to purchase further property. This, however, the Board was unable to do. About this time further investigations and official advice indicated that the Rutland field would require the relocation of a road and the acquiring of some orchard property, making the cost of the field greater than had been originally anticipated.

Faced with this fact, plus the stonewall attitude of the owners of a key piece of the property, the idea of using the Rutland field, even with its known disadvantages, was abandoned and the search continued, although of necessity, even further afield.

Finally, the Dickson property was selected as the most suitable. Civil aviation department officials examined it and approved of it; the drainage was examined by an expert and okayed; it was a safer field than the Rutland field and lent itself to easier and cheaper development. In short, it was just about ideal, excepting that it was a couple of miles further from the city than the committee would have liked. However, in these days of motor cars, it was recognized that that feature was not a serious handicap.

It was only after every other possible site had been examined that the Aviation Council recommended that the City Council take steps to secure this property. An option was secured and the bylaw prepared.

The passing of this bylaw means that Kelowna will have a site for a potential airport, acquired at a reasonable cost. The bylaw to purchase the property is for $20,000, but it is anticipated that the sale of the unneeded portion of the property will return about $10,000. If this is the case, the cost of the land will be considerably less than would have been the case had the Rutland field been acquired. The passing of this bylaw means that a fifteen-year-old headache for Kelowna is ended.

The failure to pass the bylaw means that the people of Kelowna are content to remain off the aviation map; that they are content to revert to a condition which existed in this city before the railway arrived. No more, surely, need be said. But the fact does remain that Kelowna is now at the crossroads. Either it will keep abreast of modern transportation facilities or it will drop behind and become but a point to be reached via Penticton or Vernon. If the bylaw is turned down, the option will expire and about the last opportunity of acquiring a safe, suitable and decent airstrip will have vanished.

The decision is up to the ratepayers on Thursday next.

The Lakeshore purchase bylaw needs little explanation. It is merely the ratification of an opinion expressed in a plebiscite last May when the ratepayers voted 699 in favor to 69 opposed to the acquiring of this property. There is 4.2 acres along the lakeshore in the heart of the city involved and the price is $25,000. However, no borrowing is necessary as the City Council has this money set aside for this purpose. This bylaw should be enthusiastically supported.

The other two bylaws involve the acquiring of property on the north side of Mill Avenue by the city. One is simply a switch of some city-owned property for lots on the north side of Mill Avenue. No cost to the city is involved. This bylaw should be supported.

The other bylaw involves the purchase of certain properties on the north side of Mill Avenue for $60,000, of which about $9,000 will be recoverable, it is estimated. The purchase of these properties will give the ownership of the whole north side of this street between Water and Ellis to the city and will enable the Civic Centre to face on a street rather than on the backyards of a dozen properties.

Some may feel the acquisition of this property is not essential, however, it is very safe to say that if it is not acquired now there will be many regrets about it within a few years when the property, if acquired, will cost the ratepayers considerably more than it will at this time. This bylaw, like the others, should be supported by those who have the interests of the city at heart; especially as it will not affect the tax rate adversely.

Next Thursday all four of the bylaws should be given a substantial vote of approval by the ratepayers.

Okanagan Representation

The death of Hon. K. C. MacDonald and the subsequent appointment of F. Putnam to the post of Minister of Agriculture leaves the Okanagan without any Cabinet representation. While it does not naturally follow that any district is entitled to representation on a strictly geographical basis, nevertheless it is recognized that, if at all possible, the various rural entities of the province should have Cabinet representation.

It is also particularly desirable that the heavily populated coastal area does not obtain an over preponderance of Cabinet members as Interior problems are not the same as those of the coastal cities and frequently coastal people have difficulty in appreciating this fact. Recent Cabinet shuffles have tended to increase the dominance of the coastal areas, with Dr. Weir becoming Minister of Education in the place of Hon. H. G. Perry, the former member from Port George.

There is reason to believe, however, that the present Cabinet is not necessarily the permanent one. There are indications that, following Mr. Hart's return from the East, a further shuffle of Cabinet portfolios will be made. If this is the case, Mr. Hart must surely consider Okanagan representation. This area is probably the third most important in the province, and it has problems peculiarly its own. So peculiarly its own, indeed, it is imperative that in the Cabinet there be at least one man who has an intimate knowledge of the district and a close appreciation of those problems. Only a resident here can have that.

In considering Okanagan representation for the Cabinet, the choice must inevitably fall upon W. A. C. Bennett, M.L.A. for South Okanagan. Mr. Bennett, during his term in the Legislature, demonstrated that he was definitely Cabinet material. He is young, aggressive, enthusiastic and endowed with good judgment and common sense. He does not back away from a fight and he will fight cheerfully and enthusiastically for the things he believes to be right, regardless of the consequences.

Mr. Bennett would be a definite acquisition for the Cabinet. He is the type of man needed there. He would make an admirable representative for the Okanagan, but at the same time his viewpoint is broad enough to make him an excellent administrator of a department for the whole province.

I HAVE JUST READ the proof of a letter from Mrs. Moira Coles which appears in another column of this issue. It was received last week on Wednesday, too late for publication then. Mrs. Coles does not like the idea of building a Living Memorial in the shape of an arena. That, of course, is her right. Anyone has a right to his own opinion on a thing of this nature and anyone has a right to express it. However, there is a time and a place for such an expression and Mrs. Coles should have made her objection when the whole matter was being discussed publicly. That is one point where she makes a misstatement. She says "No ideas seem to have been asked for; it was sprung on us suddenly." That statement, of course, is at wide variance with the facts. In the first place, the idea has been discussed up and down the street and at public meetings to which all were invited and which were reported in The Courier. Chapter and verse of these could be quoted but surely it is sufficient to recall that the Memorial Committee was appointed at a public meeting and given instruction to investigate which of several suggestions discussed at the meeting, one of which was a memorial arena—would be the most suitable Living Memorial. The subject was again discussed at a meeting at which the committee gave a progress report and again at a public meeting when the committee recommended that the memorial should be an arena. All these meetings were reported in detail by The Courier. Sprung on the people? Such was not the case. At these meetings—which were wide open to any who desired to attend—suggestions and ideas were asked for and any person was free to voice their opinion. Mrs. Coles was not heard.

MRS. COLES MAKES a very interesting suggestion in her letter, when she urges that the memorial should have taken the form of homes for elderly ladies. There is merit in the suggestion, but when it is examined there are several objections. In the first place, the current drive to raise funds for a Memorial is for a substantial amount, but once the building is erected, it will be operated by the city or some quasi-civic body on behalf of the city. And it is expected that its revenue will meet all the existing expenses, more so. In other words, once it is in operation it will be self-sustaining. This could not be considered to be the case if Mrs. Coles' suggested housing project were adopted. To be a fitting memorial it would have to be kept in the best of repair at all times and all times it would have to be a very low-rental proposition and the revenue would not begin to carry the burden. Especially, if, as suggested, there was to be a resident nurse in attendance. To meet the deficit, does Mrs. Coles suggest a memorial fund drive each year? But in addition, there is another angle. The City of Kelowna has already embarked on a somewhat similar scheme in the Lloyd-Jones Home. The City Council's idea behind that and Mrs. Coles' suggestion seem to be just about one and the same. Mrs. Coles, presumably, is familiar with the set-up there? It would seem rather pointless to embark upon another scheme with the same objective in a place the size of Kelowna.

THE WRITER CONFESSES that he, personally, would rather have seen an auditorium erected as a war memorial. Not that he thought an arena was not fitting, but he considered an auditorium more so. But the fact remains—and he had to face it—that most of the people favored the arena, that the weight of opinion expressed by the returned services men and those who had not yet come back was overwhelmingly in favor of an arena. They were, in fact, most enthusiastic. As a matter of fact many of them have gone on record during the past week as being most pleased that the memorial had taken this form. But then, he had to admit, too, that the pros and cons for the arena versus the auditorium question were threshed out pretty well at least two public meetings and the arena won. In addition, it was the unbiased recommendation of an elected committee—elected at a public meeting to which all persons interested in a Living Memorial were invited; and he believes that the recommendations of such a committee should be given support, even though they do not jibe with his own personal opinions. After all, the decision of a dozen men who have studied the situation from all angles should be given some consideration.

WHEN MRS. COLES suggests that the reason Kelowna wants an arena is because Vernon has one, she is not very complimentary to this city. And the writer does not think she is right. Kelowna wants an arena because an arena is needed here. There is a very important function which an arena can perform here and this has been recognized for many years; indeed it was recognized long before Vernon had its arena. Anyone who is interested in the welfare of the children of this town must want them to be able to skate and play hockey. There is no intention here to argue that these winter sports contribute much to the welfare, mental and physical, of all children; that fact is too self-evident to require argument. And the fact may as well be faced that in this "banana belt" the weather is at least close enough to the banana type to make it impossible for the youngsters to enjoy any assurance of skating on natural ice. If the kids of this town are to enjoy the right to which they are entitled, winter sports, it must be done on artificial ice. Kelowna, wisely, this writer believes, has decided to erect a Living Memorial, rather than a dead one of a block of granite, something to encourage life, fun, health and laughter, rather than a tombstone. Perhaps this is a little like "Ma giving Pa the new sitting room drapes she has always longed for" or like "Pa giving Ma that new reading lamp" for the table by his easy chair. Perhaps. But what is wrong with that if Pa gets pleasure out of having the home made a little brighter by the drapes or Ma enjoys seeing Pa read in comfort so he will not complain of eyestrain and she, too, enjoys the reading lamp while he is out at his meetings. It isn't a question of who gives who what. It is a question of all in the family working together to make the home more liveable. And that is just what an arena will do for Kelowna—better than any other project. And that, we imagine, would be just what the chaps whose names will be recorded in the building would want. Most of those chaps felt they were fighting to make the world just a little bit better place to live in and the proposed Living Memorial fulfills that function admirably.

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS of dollars have gone to war in the last six years in the shape of investments in Victory Bonds. Life Insurance Companies have invested for their policyholders over one and one-half billion dollars in Victory.

Life Insurance dollars will soon be getting back into "civvies" again. As full peacetime conditions return Life Insurance funds will again finance such socially useful enterprises as the building of highways, bridges, harbours, elevators, etc.

Such "public works" are well named, for they do provide work for vast numbers of the public. Dollars so employed create thousands of jobs, build up the country, and at the same time offer the utmost security for policyholders' funds.

This portion of every dollar invested by Life Insurance companies is in bonds issued by the federal and provincial governments. The remaining 55 cents is invested in other bonds, securities, mortgages, etc. Besides developing the country, Life Insurance funds for more than a hundred years have guarded the homes of Canada from want and privation.

LAIRD LEADS SERVICE VOTE

Dr. Reg. Laird, Coalition, led the service vote in the Similkameen riding during the provincial elections last month over his C.C.F. opponent, Bernard G. Webber.

Results received indicate that service voters and women from Similkameen riding balloted as follows: Dr. Laird, 82; Webber 65; rejected 11. The absentee ballot was Dr. Laird, 98; Webber 78; rejected 42. The final standing of the two candidates was Dr. Laird, 3,447; and Webber 2,591.

B.C. LIQUOR RATION RAISED BY EXTRA GIN

Unable to Increase Rye Whiskey Ration Due to Shortage in Canada

W. F. Kennedy, chairman of the British Columbia Liquor Control Board, announced the addition of an extra bottle of gin in the December liquor ration for B.C. permit holders.

He added that if champagne or Australian sherry is available, those imported wines may be obtained.

The ration is divided into three categories:

1. One bottle of spirits (Scotch, rye, rum or brandy), plus two bottles of gin and one dozen pints of ale or in lieu of the ale, one bottle of Australian sherry, if in stock.
2. One gallon Canadian wine, or two bottles of imported wine, plus two bottles of gin, and one dozen pints of ale, or in lieu of ale, one bottle of Australian sherry, if available. If champagne is in stock, it will be classified as two bottles of imported wine.
3. Four dozen pints of malt liquor, plus two bottles of gin and one dozen pints of ale, or in lieu of ale, one bottle of Australian sherry, if available.

Mr. Kennedy says it is not the fault of the B.C. Liquor Control Board that there has been no increase in rye whiskey rations liquor bonus.

"We are buying every drop of whiskey that the distillers will sell us. Every liquor board in Canada is on a quota basis, and we can get no more."

REORGANIZE AIR CADET LEAGUE

Working in preparation for the new air cadet syllabus which is expected to arrive shortly, the complete reorganization of the Penitence squadron on a peace-time footing is now well underway.

An effort is also being made to revive interest in the Kelowna air cadet league, and if sufficient members can be obtained, the local squadron will also be placed on a peace-time basis. A meeting was held in Kelowna some time ago, and in view of the fact regulations permit only one cadet league in a public school, it is undecided as to which one will be sponsored by the school board.

Instruction has already commenced on ground-work lines at the Penitence league, and everything is in readiness for the new syllabus, which is likely to include many new courses and items absent in former training.

Showings of films produced by the National Film Board on the rehabilitation of Canada's veterans are being sponsored by service clubs, church groups and business organizations.

Packing House Workers Collect $1,207 For Soldiers' Smoke Fund

Balance of $150 Donated to Local War Memorial Campaign

More than five years ago an employee of the "town house" plant of the Kelowna Growers' Exchange placed a metal "bank" on a desk for workers to contribute nickels and dimes toward a smoke fund for ex-employees who had joined the Armed Forces.

But from that small beginning a well-organized smoke fund originated. Thanks to the generosity of employees of "town house", a total of $1,207.06 was collected, and with the majority of the former employees now back from overseas, it has been decided to wind-up the fund.

There was a balance of $150 in the bank, and it was unanimously decided to donate the amount to the Kelowna and District War Memorial Fund. A cheque for this amount was received by the local War Memorial committee last Saturday.

During the five years the smoke fund had operated, a total of 900 parcels of food and cigarettes were sent to former employees of the fruit company. Sixty-four employees joined the services, and a record is kept of every individual in the office. Five of them paid the Supreme Sacrifice. Pictures of the majority of the servicemen and a Roll of Honor hang on the office wall.

Donate Pack
Directors of the fund were William Spear, C. Hill and Art Hall. Money for the smoke fund was raised through raffles, dances and personal contributions. Last year all the packers donated one "apple pack" a day, and this was deducted from the payroll. A financial statement was kept and all employees saw how the money was spent.

In addition to sending parcels of food and cigarettes, all former employees received a mimeographed bulletin, which contained interesting packing house news. In 1942 a two-page bulletin was sent overseas. It was increased to five pages the following year, while last year, a six-page bulletin was sent to ex-employees.

Majority of the servicemen received between 15 and 20 parcels, while one individual received a total of 25. They were generally sent once a month. With the majority of the servicemen now home, the last shipment was sent overseas on November 15.

The directors of the fund have received hundreds of letters from former employees, thanking them for their thoughtfulness while they were away from home.

"The Valley of the Tennessee," an American film now on the National Film Board trade union circuit, has an epilogue showing Canadian workers debating the application of T.V.A. power development in Canada.

POST OFFICE CLOSED OVER XMAS HOLIDAY

Announce Various Mailing Dates to United States and Canadian Provinces

As the Christmas mailing deadline date draws nearer, local postal officials ask that the following dates be referred to so as to guarantee prompt delivery.

Mail to the United States, particularly parcels, should be mailed not later than December 9, to allow for customs examination and delivery before Christmas Day. Mail to the Maritime provinces should be posted before December 12; to Ontario and Quebec, December 14; Saskatchewan and Alberta, December 15; Manitoba, December 16; British Columbia, December 17 and 18. All post office wickets in Canada will be closed on Christmas and New Years Day.

For those holding a box, it is suggested that post office box numbers be used at all times to ensure quick delivery of mail.

Visitors and new box holders are requested to call at the general delivery wicket for their mail in case there is no box number on their mail for it is impossible for the staff to remember all new numbers. Signs will be placed in the post office lobby in December explaining where to put out-going mail and where to receive parcels. Residents are asked to collect parcels immediately on receipt of notice, as all space will be needed.

In packages for the United States, eight ounces or under, whether letter rate or otherwise, a bill or customs declaration must be enclosed. Over eight ounces, the declaration must be affixed to the parcel.

HIGH SPOTS

of Kelowna High School Life

"The more, the merrier" certainly seems to be our byword as every day sees a few more new faces around the school. If this keeps up, the gym will be just "another average" classroom and the teacher in charge will have to have a public address system at his disposal.

Despite the large enrollment, school spirit is forging right along. A gala day is planned for the afternoon and evening of the 21st. For those who just can't tear themselves away from "Ye Good Old School Life," it will be the last blustful day before the "Darn Old Christmas Holidays" interfere with all your work. The Student Council is lining up a grand afternoon's entertainment with the assistance of the Drama and Glee Clubs. After supper all the "given" Jacks and Jilts have a chance to strut their stuff and show just what they've learned at the current dancing classes. As yet, this affair is nameless but it has been decided that it will be something like a Student Council member for their definition of semi-formal. After all they are the ones to blame for all this. No one ever gives them compliments. The year work. The Student Council is handing by the Grade XII's with Chief Cook and Bottle Washer, Alen Marshall, in charge. Other committees have not, as yet, been appointed.

Start making plans now to attend this dance. Put your exam results on the shelf (or any other suitable place) and join the High School at the Lunch Room, Friday, December 21.

The Drama and Glee Clubs have already been accounted for this week—namely, practicing for the Christmas entertainment. The Radio Club put on a top notch Quiz Program last night and has an interesting half-hour ready for presentation over CKOV this next Wednesday at 8.30. Don't forget to tune in at that time to hear your own radio program!

Despite the illness of her irreplaceable Editor-in-Chief (hope you will be better soon, Nina), the Naitika is gradually coming together in one piece and an extra-special Christmas edition is being planned. It seems as though the Teachers' Club is at last well underway and the coming year looks very promising. Good luck to you, Teachers of the future!

Next on the sport calendar as far as K.H.S. is concerned are the games against Summerland tomorrow night in the Gym. Basketball is firmly established in the school, the Athletic Council has succeeded in securing a new basketball and everything looks promising. One of the major factors in a good season of play is the support which the school fans give to their team. Remember, everyone turn out tomorrow night for the two games and then come to the mixer in the lunch room afterwards and round off a worthwhile evening.

This is your reporter signing "30" for this week with a timely reminder to give all those extra War Saving Certificates that are collecting dust, as your contribution towards the Living Memorial to our boys! —DOT WHITHAM.

A floor sanding licence was granted Roy S. Allen by City Council Monday night. Licence to sell Bibles and other Christian literature in the city was also granted Peter J. Janzen.

DOG LICENCE SALES INCREASE

An increase of $182 in revenue as the result of dog licence sales has been recorded so far this year compared with the same period in 1944, according to a report submitted Monday night at the City Council meeting by W. Blackwood, local poundkeeper.

GLENMORE MAKES ELECTION PLANS

Nominations for Reeve, Councillors and School Trustees for Glenmore will take place on Dec. 10. S. Pearson, Sr., who has been Reeve for the past year, is retiring, and Chas. Henderson is the only one so far who has consented to stand for the Reeveship.

In order to do this, he has retired from the Council and J. Moth-erwell, Glenmore store keeper, is running for Councillor to complete Chas. Henderson's term of office. W. J. Rankin and Jack Snowsall, whose terms are expiring from the Council, are allowing their names to stand for re-election. G. H. Moubray is also a member of the Council, but his term does not expire for another year. Those at present on the School Board are G. C. Hume, chairman; V. Martin, L. E. Marshall, P. Rankin and I. J. Newman. The terms of G. C. Hume and L. E. Marshall are expiring, but they have both consented to run for re-election.

Sam Pearson, Jr., returned home from the Coast last Friday after receiving his discharge from the Army.

The Glenmore Citizens' Radio Forum Group has again started its activities for the season, with 13 members. The new officers for 1945-46 are M. D. Wilson, chairman, and Mrs. L. J. Newman, secretary. The club meets each Tuesday evening at the individual homes, with the hostess serving refreshments, rounding out a very enjoyable evening. This week's meeting was held at Mrs. Jim Snowsall's.

The Young People's Social Club sponsored a very enjoyable hard-time dance in the school last Friday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Abe Klassen and Milo Sawatsky played the old-time music. Over 50 were present, and prizes for the best hard-time costumes were won by Miss Mavis Snowsall and Owen Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Reed accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barlee, Okanagan Mission, on a motor trip to the Coast last week, returning on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marshall and Rex spent last week in Vancouver. While there the men attended the convention of the B.C. Federation of Agriculture, held in Hotel Vancouver.

Bert Hume was successful in shooting a deer over the week-end. The orchard property belonging to R. E. J. Hunt has recently been sold.

The Glenmore road grader is now being used grading the new streets on the Bankhead Hill property, where forty new homes are being built for returned soldiers.

Mrs. G. W. H. Reed is a patient in Kelowna General Hospital.

Male dog licences have been sold and 391 males, plus one kennel licence. This is an increase of 4 female licences, and 54 male dog tags, Mr. Blackwood reported.

To the Electors of the City of Kelowna

At the coming Civic Election, I shall be unable to seek re-election as an Alderman.

The reason is that I am disposing of the property which qualified me for this office. I have acquired other property but this has not been registered for the required six months.

I take this opportunity of thanking the citizens who have supported me during my 16 years of office, and I would like to assure them of my continued efforts to promote the best interests of the City in any capacity in which I may have an opportunity to serve them.

O. L. Jones

Rev. Father Driscoll officiated at the wedding ceremony on Friday, November 30, which united Grace Matilda, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Shaeffer, of Ellison, and Nicholas Kowalchuk, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kowalchuk, of Ellison.

The marriage ceremony was held at the Catholic Rectory. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white sheer gown featuring a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. Her only ornament was a gold locket. Her embroidered veil was held in place with a French lace halo, which fell to her shoulders. Her bouquet was of red and white carnations and maidenhair fern.

Miss Rosemary Schaeffer, the bride's sister, and Miss Phyllis Smith were the attendants. The former chose a gown of shell pink sheer, and the latter a blue sheer gown. Both wore flowers and a short veil on a head-piece and carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

Alfred Krebs and Alexander Thomas were groomsmen. The wedding party was held in the Ellison School under the arrangements of Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas. About eighty guests were present, enjoying an evening of dancing to the music of the Melodious orchestra. The bride and groom's mothers were in attendance. The bride's mother wore a floral jersey silk dress with a corsage of white orchids, and the groom's mother wore a white dress with a green floral pattern and a corsage of white orchids.

The three-tier cake stood on a fruit of pink and white tulle flanked with yellow and white chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Kowalchuk will reside in Kamloops.

ingly in favor of the purchase of the Kelowna Sawmills' lakeshore property on Water Street, for inclusion in the Civic Centre site. The price of this property is $25,000 but it does not involve the borrowing of any money, as the City Council has this sum laid aside for this purpose.

"The other two bylaws involve the property on the north side of Mill Avenue between Water Street and Ellis Street.

"One bylaw is to secure the two lots on the north-east corner of Mill Avenue and Ellis Street in exchange for the property now owned by the city on the south-east corner of Water and Mill. This is where the police station now stands. This bylaw involves no money, simply an exchange of property.

"The other bylaw is to borrow $50,000 to secure the balance of the property on the north side of Mill Avenue. It is important that the ratepayers know why the City Council is submitting this bylaw," Mr. Hughes-Games stated.

"The following points," he said, "should be noted:

"1. The Harland Bartholomew report on the Civic Centre stated that, if the centre is located on the property already secured, it will look after and in the event of a poll being necessary, such poll shall be opened on the Thirtieth Day of December, 1945, at the Kelowna Women's Institute Hall, 134 Glenn Avenue, Kelowna, B.C.

"2. The Civic Centre Committee, after careful study of this report and careful measurements of proposed buildings and other factors, asked the City Council to take steps to secure this property.

"3. The City Council, after securing options in some cases, and in others making provision for alternative arrangements for the property

Increase Of $47,500 Over 1944 In Sale Of Lumber Is Recorded By Rutland Co-operative Group

Big Improvement in Financial Standing Reported at Annual Meeting—Payroll of Sawmill Exceeds $32,000—Additional Equipment Raised Value of Assets Over $17,000—Two Resolutions Discussed at Meeting

THE annual meeting of the Rutland Co-operative Society, which is the organization operating the local sawmill, was held in the Community Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 30th, with about fifty members in attendance. The chair was taken by Clarence Duncan, with Dougald McDougall acting as secretary. Printed copies of the annual report and financial statement were in the hands of all members, and after reading the directors' report, the financial statement was dealt with briefly by the secretary-treasurer. The report showed a great improvement in the financial standing of the co-operative. Total sales amounted to approximately $70,000 during the past year, compared with $22,500 the year previous. The payroll exceeded $32,000 and gross profits amounted to $5,714.25. Additional equipment had raised the value of the assets by over $17,000. Discussion of the future of the society resulted in the passing of two resolutions.

The first, moved by Fred Wostrowski, favored making the organization 100% co-operative by restricting sales of lumber and employment at the mill to shareholders. The second, moved by J. Van Es, requested the directors to examine the cost of building a new mill, with better equipment, with a pond for the easier handling and selection of logs, and to report to a subsequent meeting of the members. The meeting also went on record as favoring quarterly meetings of the shareholders. Joe Casorso expressed the meeting's appreciation of the services of the directors and moved that they be paid for their services from now on at the rate of $5 per meeting. Particular emphasis was placed upon the great amount of time and work put into the direction of the mill by the chairman, C. J. Duncan, under whose guidance the mill had been put on a paying basis.

The enthusiasm and vision of the secretary, D. McDougall, who had been largely instrumental in starting the society and carrying the project through its difficult formative period, were also commented upon by speakers. The manager, J. Fred Munson, reported on the year's operations, and strongly favored the erection of a new mill. He also stated that he had been in favor of relocating the mill near the creek and the railroad, but the directors were not favorable to such a change. Election of officers resulted in the re-election of all last year's directors, namely: C. J. Duncan, D. McDougall, H. G. Walburn, Andrew Ritchie and Thos. Wilkinson.

The long awaited new school bus has arrived at last, and the consolidated school now has adequate transportation. Up until now it had been necessary for one of the buses to make two trips to Oyama, the pupils on the second trip missing an hour or more of school, each day. The second return trip had to be made at a very late hour also. The district now has a fleet of three buses.

A public meeting has been arranged for Friday night, Dec. 7, by the Municipality Committee of the B.C. F.G.A. local, to enable residents to air their views on the subject of incorporation, and to obtain authoritative information on the question from the Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, B. C. Bracewell, who is coming from Victoria to attend the meeting. A good attendance of all interested in the future of the community is looked for.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Duncan, Sr., and their son, Jill, left by train Sunday for Spokane, Wash., for a ten day visit.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Quigley attended a dinner at their home in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding on Saturday last. They were the recipients of many beautiful silver gifts.

A meeting of local canvassers for the Kelowna and District War Memorial fund was held at the home of the district team captain, F. L. Fitzpatrick, on Thursday evening last, and the district mapped out for the canvass. A. K. Loyd, Capt. C. R. Bull and E. Smith, of Kelowna, were all in attendance and each spoke in turn upon the purpose and the progress of the campaign. The amount that it is desired to raise in Rutland is $7,200.00. About $3,000 of this sum has already been raised in the Bel-go district, the only area fully canvassed to date.

The first edition of the new school paper, "Rutvinnama" (a contraction of the names of the three principal districts of the consolidated area) appeared at the school last week. It is a twelve page mimeograph job. Editorial staff includes Dorothy Gray, editor; Marge Barber, assistant editor, and Chas. Shaw-McLaren and Alvin McKenzie as sub-editors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harrison left on Monday for their new home at Webster's Corners, near Haney, B.C.

E. T. Money, of Saturna Island, is visiting friends and relatives in the Kelowna district.

J. F. Guest, a former resident of Rutland, and now of New York City, is visiting relatives in the district.

Mrs. F. Welters and family have moved to Kelowna to reside, having disposed of their property here to J. Rausser.

Capt. C. R. Bull has leased his Belgo orchard property and is moving to Okanagan Mission, where he has purchased a five-acre property.

Pupils of the school held elections last week to choose officers for the Student Council, resulting as follows: president, Jean Barber; vice-president, Nick Husch; secretary, Dora Holitzki; treasurer, T. Yamamoto.

The first games in the Inter-Patrol Basketball League were played after the meeting, with Claude Bissel assisting as referee, and giving the boys some coaching on the side. The Beavers won from the Eagles by 7 to 5, in a close contest. The Foxes won handily from the Seals 8 to 2. Next week the two winning teams play, and the two losers. The games will be played after the regular meeting period, and will not interfere with the Scout training program.

ON PARLIAMENT HILL

Written exclusively for The Courier, by Dean Wilson

N. E. P.

These three letters, N. E. P., have been heard more in discussions both inside the House of Commons and outside in the lobbies than anything else lately, though these letters simply represent "National Emergency Powers" Act by which the Federal Government has endeavored to continue, with modification, the operations of the War Measures Act by conferring certain powers upon the Governor-in-Council during the national emergency following the war. In short, as one prominent spokesman for the Government explained, "The first principle has to do with the temporary distribution of the legislative powers as between parliament and the provincial legislatures. The second principle deals with the distribution of legislative functions as between Parliament and the Governor-in-Council in connection with temporary emergency conditions. There are two quite different questions, but both fall to be decided as a consequence of the view which it may be proper to take of the same set of facts. Are we still in a condition of national emergency?"

Moreover, it may be added at this time that, when the steering committee, or the co-ordinating committee of the Dominion-Provincial Conference had held its important meetings, various stories were told on Parliament Hill about the reactions of these representatives of the Provincial Governments to this now famous "N.E.P." Act, though, in general, there seemed to be no strong opposition to certain essential continuation of anti-inflation controls, but some extremely wide-sweeping powers were quite unpopular, with adjustments appearing advisable in the views of observers.

CHRISTMAS—AND HOME

Party leaders and whips in Parliament have been showing some real Christmas spirit this year in their desperate drive to close up for the holidays, and it has been no simple, nor easy assignment on account of the talkative proceedings as well as a heavy program, though now it can be said that this drive for more and more speed in Parliament has been relatively successful, especially since Premier King told the Parliament that some measures, such as the Citizenship Act, the proposed Extradition Treaty and Protocol with the United States, etc., would have to await the 1946 session. Other matters, such as the Exports Credit Act and the Bretton

Woods financial arrangements, etc., would be handled in this session. Then again, another story has been circulating now that, when the Parliament will meet in 1946, a somewhat similar effort may be made to bring about all-party co-operation in "streamlining" proceedings so that it may be possible to end the new session before it runs into the intense heat of the capital next summer, if conditions will warrant and allow such a conclusion.

AGAIN IT'S MEAT

In view of the removal of meat rationing in the United States and its continuation in Canada, there is considerable interest in Ottawa about the likely effects of this situation since both countries are committed to help relieve the shortages of meat abroad, especially since meat rationing went back into effect in this country only last September, admittedly in the midst of furious protests not only from the trade across this nation, but from numerous other directions. "The United States, in exporting less than five per cent of its meat supplies, may be able to manage its program through 'set-aside' orders without rationing, and still be able to maintain fair distribution and fair prices," said in part Prime Minister King in explanation. "We are convinced, however, that in Canada we could not, without rationing, export between forty and fifty per cent of our Federally inspected kill and maintain orderly distribution and hold our price ceilings."

Meanwhile the latest information in this capital has disclosed that the total of Canadian meats exported in October, 1945, amounted to $9,048,000 as compared with $7,221,000 in October, 1944, with the exports of meats for the first ten months of 1945 likewise being $129,497,000 and $105,368,000 for the same months of 1944. Likewise, this latest report shows that Canada's exports of bacon, hams, shoulders, and sides in October, 1945, amounted to $4,548,000, as compared with $3,895,000 in October, 1944, with shipments for the first ten months of the current year having been valued at $32,033,000 as compared with $130,452,000 for the same period of last year. These figures are stressed in this capital as speaking louder than mere arguments for or against policy itself.

MAJORITY AND MINORITY

While some may argue that the majority should or should not agree to set up a divorce court system in Quebec for the convenience of the minority in that province, yet this year, as in others, it is evident that opinions in Ottawa differ sharply on this matter, judging by the reactions in Parliament when it gave thought to 63 divorce bills as approved by the Senate. A spokesman for the Government indicated that the suggestion that Quebec divorces should be handled by the Exchequer Court in Ottawa, or elsewhere outside Quebec, may not be practicable. Likewise, a French-Canadian Minister of the Cabinet declared that it might be unwise for Parliament to impose a divorce court on Quebec Province since it would be repugnant to the majority of the people of that old province because of their well-known views against divorce. Then again, other speakers remarked that, since Quebec alone was without a divorce system in its courts, this was not satisfactory in the manner in which numerous divorces are rushed through the House of Commons after previously being passed by the Senate, though others in Parliament held that the Senate's work in divorces was "very carefully done and very judiciously handled by experienced men." Nevertheless, in face of these heated disputes about the origin of numerous divorces in Quebec each year without a distinct court in that province to handle

LOCAL LIONS ATTEND VERNON CHARTER NIGHT

Over 200 People Attend Official Inauguration of Vernon Lions Club

Representatives of the local Lions Club journeyed to Vernon last Friday night, where they took part in the official inauguration of the three-month-old Vernon Lions Club. About 200 guests from Interior points and the United States attended the Charter Night.

Objectives of the Lions Club include the creation and fostering of a spirit of "generous consideration" among the peoples of the world; the promotion of the theory and practice of the principles of good government and good citizenship, and to take an active interest in the civic, commercial, social and moral welfare of the community.

Toastmaster at Friday's banquet was E. A. Simmons, of Vancouver, Past Deputy Governor. Thomas Fowler, of Seattle, International Director, was guest speaker, and District Governor Don Wilke, of Walla Walla, Wash., presented the Charter, accepted by Vernon president, W. MacKenzie.

WINFIELD

St. Margaret's Anglican Guild held their annual bazaar in the Winfield Community Hall last Friday evening. The sale of needlework and home cooking got underway at 7:30 p.m. Tables were set up for cards and checkers. Hot dogs and coffee were served during the evening. Mrs. Howes, Sr., won the chicken by guessing the closest to its exact weight. Mrs. A. Lett, of Oyama, won the pot of honey. The total amount taken in was $221.00.

Miss Shirley Teal arrived home on Thursday from the Kelowna General Hospital, where she had been a patient.

Mrs. S. C. Jones is visiting in Endersby, the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Garnier, of Clonad, Alta., have taken up residence in the district.

The services of the Winfield United Church will be held at 2:30 instead of the usual 3:00. This change in time has been continued throughout the winter months.

A number of Winfield's returned servicemen attended the big "Welcome Home" dance in Kelowna on Thursday of last week.

same, no better method seems to be at hand, with one view being that the problem would be getting worse rather than better in the near future on account of the many hasty marriages contracted during the war.

IMPOSSIBLE TO EXAGGERATE

The only woman member of Parliament has come forth with a request that the Federal Government should make plans to bring refugee children to Canada in order to save these little victims from the terrible chaotic conditions prevalent in Europe this winter. However, Premier King himself rose to answer her, though the woman member, Mrs. Gladys Strum, had asked this question of the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Hon. Brooke Claxton, with the head of the Government declaring that it is impossible to exaggerate the conditions this winter in Europe due to the lack of food, clothes, shelter, etc. But, stated Premier King who had used the word "appalling" in referring to European conditions, the Canadian Government would have to consider the problem with great care because it regarded, at the present time, the repatriation of service personnel from overseas as its great task, stressing that the shortage of shipping from Europe was the limiting factor in considering what might be done in the line of carrying out what proposed by Mrs. Strum.

WEEKLY WIND-UP

There is no general amnesty in prospect for deserters from the Canadian Forces or delinquents who failed to report for army service. This has been made clear in Ottawa, where it has been pointed out that it was not considered in the interests of discipline in the services that there should be a change of policy at this time. Jacques Greber, famous town-planner who has been given the job of creating a master-plan for developing Canada's capital, has returned to Ottawa for a short holiday after spending several hectic weeks in Ottawa, where he consulted hundreds of officials and others, addressed numerous meetings and dinners. He is expected to come back to Canada in January. It may not be generally known but there is a woman in Ottawa, Mrs. Janet Forrest, who started a fund in this capital during the war for the purpose of sending cigarettes to the men and women of the armed services, and the so-called "Pay Day Parade of Dimes" from November, 1941, until "V-J." Day was responsible for sending about 5,000,000 cigarettes overseas during the war without a single dime being spent on any overhead expenses. "The atomic bomb is a sword of Damocles. It is a shot in the arm we needed. It tells us 'You be good or you're going to hell!'" These words were said in Ottawa by the Boy Scout Commissioner, John A. Styles, who has just come back from overseas. A total of $11,766,953 has been paid to 18,762 Canadian Army ex-service personnel applicants for war service gratuities during September, and this has brought to $63,206,672 the total gratuities paid to the end of September, according to the latest report in this capital. The home of the Irish High Commissioner to Canada, Hon. John J. Hearne, who has been away on state business, was broken into in Ottawa by an unknown housebreaker and considerable damage was done to several priceless antique pieces of furniture in his beautiful house. Defence Minister, Hon. Douglas Abbott, has forecast in Ottawa that by March or April, 1946, the army's repatriation from Europe may be concluded with the exception of occupation troops.

Why

A WAR MEMORIAL?

There are still a few people not very enthusiastic about the idea of erecting a token of gratitude to those who fought and died for freedom, so let us ask ourselves a few questions and let our hearts answer them.

- 1 Should Kelowna and District have a War Memorial? Are we that grateful?
- 2 Is a "Living Memorial" more desirable than an inanimate monument?
- 3 If we decide on a "Living Memorial" what could offer more service, bring more joy, health and well-being to a community than a Recreational Centre?
- 4 Once it is decided to build a Recreational Centre for the whole area, do we want a first-class building worthy of being a Memorial?
- 5 What should our contribution be? What price do we place on freedom?

KELOWNA MAN IS ELECTED ON CHURCH COUNCIL

Twenty-five Delegates Attend Annual Conference of Regular Baptist Churches

About 25 delegates from the Regular Baptist Churches of the Interior met in annual conference in Emmanuel Regular Baptist Church, Vernon, on Nov. 25.

Reports of the Association work, and the work of Sunnybrae Bible Camp, were read and discussed. A year of extension and accomplishment was evidenced.

With over 100 persons attending Bible Camp as guests or workers, and the erection of accommodation upon the 185 acre site bought this year, great incentive is given to more expansion in the season ahead.

The following were chosen as officers for the coming year: Rev. E. V. Apps, Vernon, president; Rev. D. G. Milligan, Kamloops, vice-president; Rev. W. O. McKee, Salmon Arm, secretary-treasurer. The Council is as follows: S. F. Branton, William Dandlman, both of Armstrong; Dr. J. H. Kope, Enderby; L. F. Walrod, Kelowna.

The above officers were elected to the Camp Committee, with the addition of J. H. Harris, Kelowna, and S. F. Sharp, Kamloops.

The pastor of Kelowna Church will be second vice-president when the church has chosen him.

The ladies of Emmanuel Church entertained the delegates to supper in the new premises of their enlarged church. The visitors expressed congratulations at the size and usefulness as well as the general arrangement of the building addition.

A good congregation attended the evening service conducted by Rev. D. G. Milligan. Colored pictures of Sunnybrae Camp were shown. A message from Missionary-elect, Miss Betty Martin, of Kelowna, was well received. Guest speaker was Rev. Russell Self, pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church, Vernon.

DAMAGE CLAIM
WILL BE FILED AGAINST CITY

Turkey Farmer Says Reservoir Water Caused Extensive Damage to Property

Notice was received by the City Council Monday night that a claim for unstated damages will shortly be made against the city by Hugh Turner, turkey farmer at the foot of Knox Mountain, as the result of damage done to his property when water from the city reservoir overflowed on his land on October 25. The matter has been placed in the hands of the City Solicitor.

In a letter, received from D. C. Fillmore, who is acting on behalf of Mr. Turner, the lawyer stated it is impossible to estimate the amount of damage done to the property at the present time, but intimated the water from the reservoir deposited dirt, stones and debris on the land as the result of the water rushing down the mountain.

Heavy rains and snow on October 25 caused part of the drain from the reservoir to cave in, and before the water could be turned off at the reservoir proper, more than one and a half million gallons had gushed down the mountain.

Following a brief discussion, it was decided Alderman Sam Miller and City Engineer Harry Blackborough will inspect the property and before getting in touch with the City Solicitor.

Pte. H. P. Gagne, of the Canadian Army Show, is expected to arrive in Kelowna from overseas, according to word received this week by his wife, Mrs. Gagne, of the Courier staff.

How to cook steaks,
chops and roasts

Certain basic rules should be followed in the cooking of steaks, chops and roasts to arrive at full flavor and tenderness. The broiling and roasting times listed below will be a quick and easy reference pasted in your scrap book of recipes.

BROILING—DIRECT HEAT

Steaks and chops should be 1-inch thick or thicker for broiling. Place meat 2 to 3 inches from heat. Brown one side of meat then turn, by inserting fork into fat, and brown the other side. About half of broiling time is required for each side, reducing heat to complete cooking after turning and browning. Season meat after broiling or just before serving.

BROILING STEAKS AND CHOPS

Steak 1½ inches thick:
15 minutes—rare
20 minutes—medium
25 minutes—well-done
Lamb chops 1 inch thick:
12—20 minutes
Lamb chops 2 inches thick:
20—30 minutes

Pan-Broiling

Slightly grease heavy frying pan and heat to sizzling-hot. Brown meat well, about 1 minute, on both sides then reduce temperature. Turn meat at intervals and continue cooking until done. Pour off fat, as it accumulates. Do not cover pan. Do not add water.

ROASTING—DRY HEAT

A meat thermometer is an accurate guide for roasting tender cuts of meat. Roasts should be served as quickly as possible after removing from the oven for the desired degree of doneness, otherwise, since the cooking process continues, the meat may be overdone. Place roast on a rack or trivet fat side up in a pan 2 inches deep or less, uncovered. (Place rib roast on ribs, fat side up, without rack.) Season meat if desired—flouring not necessary. Do not baste or turn meat.

ROASTING TIMES AND TEMPERATURES
300° F. to 350° F. constant temperature. (Increase roasting time approximately 10 minutes per pound for rolled or boned roasts.)

Beef:
2½ to 25 minutes per lb.—rare
28 minutes per lb.—medium
30 to 32 minutes per lb.—well-done
Lamb:
30 to 35 minutes per lb.—medium
35 to 40 minutes per lb.—well-done
Pork:
40 to 45 minutes per lb.—well-done
Veal:
40 to 45 minutes per lb.—well-done

ELLISON

Mr. and Mrs. Kowalchuk entertained a number of friends at the dinner hour last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scott left Saturday for Vancouver. Mr. Scott attended the B.C. School Trustees convention, being one of the representatives of the Central Okanagan United School District, while Mrs. Scott was a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. Forrest.

Gunner Frank Klein is spending a leave at his home after returning from overseas. He reports to Vancouver the beginning of January.

Mrs. H. Pollard had a family gathering at her home last Sunday in honor of her birthday. Those present were Mrs. Morgan and Douglas, of Penikese; Mr. and Mrs. McClounie and two children, of Vernon; and Mr. and Mrs. W. Pollard.

There will be a whist drive at the Ellison school this Friday, December 7. The committee in charge will be Miss May Conroy, Mrs. N. Smith and Mrs. W. Bulman.

Mrs. Klein has been a patient in the Kelowna General Hospital.

A number of friends were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schaeffer last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Quenell, of Lumby, were Friday and Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Pollard.

that donations can often be increased if part is paid now and part on a later date.

"The committee has done and is doing all it can do to make this project a success. We appreciate and thank those who have responded and we urge that on this special occasion a very special effort be made to have our donations represent our gratitude," Mr. Loyd concluded.

The decision to extend the canvass another week was inevitable as it became evident that the number of call-backs were such as to make it impossible for a large number of canvassers to clean up their lists this week.

The number of these recalls has surprised the committee, which had felt that the majority of homes would have come to some decision as to the amount of their gratitude and had the cheque ready. However, such has not been the case and canvassers are remaking a large proportion of their calls.

Only enough, the great percentage of the donations are for straight cash. This applies to both the big and little gifts. It was felt that many donors did not have ready cash and a good method of giving, and while some have done this, the percentage is small.

It was felt, too, that many would take advantage of the fact that they had accumulated War Savings Bonds and would dip into these for their gifts. Certificates, obtained unwittingly, and would dip into these for their gifts. This has been received and the smallness of this figure has rather surprised the officials. War Savings, actually, is a splendid source from which a substantial gift can be painlessly made.

Actually there are roughly about $500,000 in War Savings in this area. This amount has been accumulated here, for the most part, through small and casual savings, the purchase of a stamp here and there, and the collection of a certificate was collected. Most of the owners of these certificates never felt, financially, their collections. And many of them have no idea how many they have.

Part deductions accounted for about $2,500 a month and the employees who purchased them, for the most part, never missed the small amounts which went into their purchases.

About half a million dollars in this area is tied up in little pieces of blue and white paper and a large percentage of the owners could not tell within ten per cent how much money they have in War Savings. The committee had hoped that these people would say to themselves: "Well, it did not hurt me to collect them and I collected them while the other fellows were getting wounded and killed, so it will not hurt me to put them, or a lot of them, into the Memorial Fund pot."

Another factor, which has not been extremely satisfactory, is the pledge system. Through this a person may make a gift now and one later on. He may arrange to make the monthly deductions from his bank account. The pledge system is simply a means of making a gift in the future.

It was hoped that many persons would avail themselves of this system. The bank account deduction system is an easy way of making a donation; painless extraction, as many Red Cross and Victory Bond purchasers found. The deductions from the savings accounts each month, made by the bank, are not felt.

However, surprisingly few donors have taken advantage of this method of painless giving. Just why, is a puzzle.

WELCOME HOME

Gardner, secretary, will listen sympathetically to all your troubles and is there to assist you and to refer you to the various members of the committee for guidance and help.

"We hope that you will approve of the idea and aims of the party. Tonight, should you wish to meet any member or members of the various organizations represented here we trust that you will not hesitate to make your wishes known, when the committee will be pleased to arrange to assist you.

"We thank you for accepting our invitation to this party tonight and turning out in such great numbers. Your attendance will materially assist in making the evening a happy, friendly and successful occasion."

"In conclusion, let me say that I concur in the words of welcome of His Worship the Mayor, the President of the Board of Trade and Alderman Herbert. This community is proud of the service record of its men and women and we of the Kelowna and District War Veterans' Rehabilitation Committee hope that, by assisting you in your problems and by so doing, you will be able to make you all happy and contented, which, if accomplished, will help and improve the community spirit of the city as a whole. It has rightly been said that a contented, happy community life is essential to the winning of the peace that has followed World War II."

"On behalf of the Kelowna Board of Trade, it gives me great pleasure to have this opportunity of welcoming Home to Kelowna the members of the Armed Forces. To the home-town girls and boys, it is great to see you back among us and to the newcomers, we welcome you in our midst," declared Don Whitman.

"I would like you to know that the Board of Trade is very anxious to assist you in every way possible in your rehabilitation problems. It is hardly a day passes that our secretary does not have returned personnel coming into his office for information about business, industries, etc., and he is doing his utmost to give you all the information or direct you to a member of the Board, who can give you the required information.

"As you know, one of the first duties of a Board of Trade is to advertise its district far and wide and I want to sincerely thank you for the way you have advertised your home-town to the members of the Armed Forces and by so doing you have certainly put Kelowna on the map. This is positive proof by the numerous letters we have received from returned men in many parts of Canada, asking for particulars about Kelowna and District.

"I want to congratulate you on the way you have conducted yourselves in the services and in so doing, you have brought honor and fame to your home town.

"In conclusion, if you want any information on business or industry, I want you to feel free to drop into the secretary's office at any time and he will do his utmost to get the particulars for you. And I am here to assure you that we all appreciate the wonderful contribution and sacrifice made by you in the cause of democracy. We thank you and welcome you home to our midst."

Herbert's Address
"Tonight we have with us many young men and women who have served their country during the past five years in the most hazardous service that man was ever called upon to undertake. You are returning to Kelowna and District to start life anew. We welcome you back. Many of our boys are coming home married—some with Canadian brides, and some with brides from the Motherland," declared Alderman G. Herbert.

"I want to say to these young couples again 'We particularly welcome you.' Those from overseas will find things strange here in Canada at the beginning. We, as civilians, are going through a transition period, too, and if we seem very busy with our own affairs, try to understand, but don't hesitate to make your problems known to us, for we will stop and listen to you ask us. The married couples will just naturally want to get settled in a little home of their own as soon as possible, and my advice to you is to make the very best of things as they are, for the time being. Don't wander from one city to another. Distant fields may look green, but there are none better than those in the Okanagan Valley."

"To the mothers and wives who will not have the privilege of welcoming home their sons and husbands, we extend our sincerest sympathy and understanding. The boys all have answered the call, many have made the supreme sacrifice so that we may carry on at home. It is our business now to prove to these beyond the Canadian Legion that a life worth while for the citizens of this country. It is our business now to win the peace, as our boys have won the war. Our task is less hazardous, but not less adventurous. It will tax our best brains to make a good blueprint for the future of the people in this country. So let us 'To work', study our citizenship problems together, and with willing hands be ready to work hard to achieve and to blaze a new trail that will make for 'The Greatest Good to the Greatest Number'."

KELOWNA HOOP TEAM REVENGE EARLIER LOSS

Shamrocks Defeat Vernon 34-30 Following Close Contest —Tuxis Lose 41-26

Kelowna Shamrocks got revenge for the defeat they took from Vernon Intermediate "A" basketball team two weeks ago, when they outscored their opponents 34-30 at Vernon on Monday night.

Vernon took a four-point lead at the end of the first quarter, but the locals came back and equalized things at the half way mark. During the latter stage of the final period, Vernon came within one point of tying the score, but Kelowna spurred ahead again and scored two more baskets to salt the game away.

Saucer was the outstanding star for the locals, netting a total of 14 points, while M. Macdonald, Weddell and Tostinson counted for six apiece. Munk was high man for Vernon with ten points, and Kelowna took second place honors with eight points.

On the same bill, Kelowna Tuxis were defeated by a one-sided 41-26 score by Vernon Intermediate basketball team. The locals took the lead in the first quarter, but it was short-lived, as Vernon soon rallied and were never headed.
